16th—Lunchtime Workout with MSHO Fitness

Grumbacher Field House, 12-1pm

Join YCP Student and Personal Trainer Dwayne Molock for an exercise class that will jumpstart your fitness goals!

17th—The Slave Narratives

DeMeester Recital Hall, 7pm

In the book Bullwhip Days, former slaves provided first-hand accounts of their experiences on plantations, in cities, and on small farms. These narratives provide an invaluable oral history of slavery and the individuals it impacted. Experience these powerful, true stories read by members of the York College community.

21st—Mardi Gras Celebration

Johnson Dining Hall, 5-7pm

"Mardi Gras" (mär'd grä), a French term literally meaning "Fat Tuesday", is the single day culmination of the Carnival season. We will have traditional New Orleans food and music, so come and be part of our Carnival celebration. In partnership with Chartwell's Dining Services.

MARCH

27th—Miss Representation Film Viewing

Multiculturalism in Motion Movie Series, DeMeester Recital Hall, 7pm

Miss Representation is an award winning film that discusses the link between the ways that women are portrayed in the media and how that portrayal impacts women who aspire to be leaders. It is an eye-opening and candid film that is a must see! In partnership with the Art Gallery.

27th—30th—Bead for Life Sale

Student Union Lobby, 11am-2pm

The mission of Bead for Life is to create sustainable opportunities for women to lift their families out of extreme poverty by connecting people worldwide in a circle of exchange that enriches everyone. This sale will provide patrons the opportunity to purchase handcrafted items while making a positive global economic impact. Shop guilt free at this sale!
